

Hats of all kinds

22 May 1995

Question: What kind of hat do you wear?

Kind of Hat:

Webster Reference or Other Ref

Sombrero

p 1357

Bowler

Cowboy  $\left\{ \begin{array}{l} \text{felt} - 10\text{-gal} \\ \text{straw} \end{array} \right.$

helmet

hood

Bonnet

Beret

Crown

R.C.Ch. = official Red hat of a Cardinal or Rank or position of Cardinal skull cap

Stove-pipe hat =

Derby

Stetson

Turban

Fez

Phrases:

Do off the hat

hatted } to provide one with a hat

hatting }

Pass the hat

hat in hand = in a humble or obsequious manner take one's hat off = salute or congratulate talk through one's hat = to make foolish or irresponsible statements throw one's hat into the ring = to enter a contest

under one's hat = confidential or secret

|                        |  |   |
|------------------------|--|---|
| Duplicity of therapy   | Concurrent salicylates or NSAIDs   | No clinical data indicates an advantage of using NSAIDs with a salicylate or multiple NSAIDs. |
| Drug-drug interactions | Cyclosporine   | ↑ nephrotoxicity  |
|                        | Anticoagulants, oral      Thrombolytic agentsHeparin   | prolong PT, ↑ risk of GI bleed  |
|                        | Beta blockers  | ↓ antihypertensive effect   |
|                        | Ranitidine, Cimetidine   | variable effect of NSAIDs serum concentration   |
|                        | High-dose Corticosteroids (Controversial)  | ↑ severity and incidence of GI ulceration   |
|                        | Loop diuretics   | ↓ diuretic and natriuretic effect   |
|                        | Thiazide diuretics   | ↓ efficacy  |
|                        | Phenytoin      LithiumHigh-dose Methotrexate   | ↑ serum concentration of these drugs  |
|                        | Salicylates  | ↓ serum concentration of NSAIDs   |
|                        | Probenecid   | ↑ serum concentration of NSAIDs   |
|                        | Theoretical RisksACE Inhibitors      TriamtereneDigoxinPlicamycin      Valproic AcidCefamandole      CefoperazoneCefotetan      Moxalactam |   |